Sir,

According to the enclosed news article you are again associating with the negro and this time Lillian Smith, you and that scoundrel should be driven out of the South because both of you are disgraceful characters and are most detrimental to the South.

I do not know if the Smith woman can carry a sword in her hand, judging from your interest in negroes you can certainly negro lovers and you and Smith are not any better than negroes
It is impossible to tell you how you are held in contempt by the people of Christians County and you have no right to be on the Board of Education and if you have any self respect you won't have refused the appoint ment or would resign since you know that the citizens of Franklin sent you being a member you are a member of the United World-Federalist
& United World-Federalist
communist organization.

also the Attorney General of the U.S.
We do not want you in Benin, to get out
Comdr Frank W Spencer
224 East Bay Street
Savannah Ga
Personal
Miss Lillian Smith's Talk Is Next Sunday

Miss Lillian Smith, author of "Strange Fruit" and "Killers of a Dream," will be the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Savannah branch, N. A. A. C. P., Monday night, February 12, at the West Broad Street Y. M. C. A., it was announced by W. W. Law. The public program will not be held on tomorrow night, he said, as was erroneously announced in a previous news article.

The meeting on February 12 celebrates the forty-second anniversary of the N. A. A. C. P. as a national mass organization working for the attainment of a society of equality, security and freedom for all.

She will address an inter-racial program on next Sunday afternoon, February 11, at the First African Baptist Church and will remain in the city to speak for the N. A. A. C. P. program.

Aircraft Carrier Is Added

NEW YORK, February 4 — The United States has ordered the construction of a new aircraft carrier and is expected to cost $400 million. The carrier will be the largest ever built and is scheduled to enter service in 2023.